

CONTENTS

SPECIAL ISSUE: Past, Present, and Future of Japanese Studies

NARITA Ryūichi

Theory and History in “Japanese Culture”: The Transition of Japanese Studies 15

HOTATE Michihisa

Discourse on Japanese Culture and the Study of Mythology and Religious History: 35

The Work of Umehara Takeshi

SHŌGIMEN Takashi

Thoughts on Japanese Studies as a Discipline in the Humanities 63

INAGA Shigemi

“International Japanese Studies” Today and the Tasks Ahead:

Managing Nichibunken as an Institution 73

OCHIAI Emiko

Repositioning Japanese Studies in Global Perspective: The Redefinition of “Japan” and “Asia” 85

TANIKAWA Takeshi

Research on Japan’s Popular Culture 105

SHYU Shing Ching

Taiwan’s Japanese Studies Open to the World 117

W. J. (Wim) BOOT

Object and Methodology in Japanese Studies: The Past and the Future 131

Irmela HIJIYA-KIRSCHNEREIT

Past, Present and Future in One Project:

Highlighting Issues of Scholarship through Dictionary Work 145

MIYACHI Masato, NITŌ Atsushi, and INOUE Shōichi

Three Scholars in Dialogue: On the “Nichibunken Problem” 171

BOOK REVIEWS 209